FOR 2005-07 BUDGET -- NOT READY FOR INTRODUCTION

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

CHILDREN

Under current law, no person may for compensation provide care and supervision for four or more children under the age of seven for less than 24 hours a day unless the person obtains a license from DHFS to operate a day care center. To obtain a license to operate a day care center, a person must, among other things, meet the minimum requirements for a license promulgated by DHFS by rule. Current law also authorizes DHFS to inspect and investigate day care centers and to impose certain sanctions and penalties on a person who operates a day care center without a license or who violates a provision of licensure or a minimum standard for the operation of a day care center promulgated by DHFS by rule.

This bill transfers from DHFS to DWD the authority to license day care centers, to promulgate rules establishing minimum requirements for day care center licensure and minimum standards for day care center operation, to inspect and investigate day care centers, and to impose sanctions and penalties for operating a day care center without a license or for violating a provision of day care center licensure or a minimum standard for the operation of a day care center.

A final decision has been made, and yes, we are going to make the transfer effective upon passage of the budget bill.

Gordon, the answer to your question below is yes.

Pam, this means some changes to the amounts allocated under s. 49.155 (1g). I will bundle those changes with some other changes for the TANF/CCDF allocations draft (LRB-1662), and send them to you in one communication, hopefully later today.

Thanks,
-Erin

Hi,

Just a heads up that there is a very good chance that we will change the effective date of the transfer to immediately upon passage of the budget bill (a final decision should be made on Monday). Pam, hopefully this will make drafting those sections that overlap with the TANF/CCDF allocations draft a little easier to do (no double drafting). Gordon, we would likely put the budget authority and position changes into the budget bill and thus be able to delete section 9121 that talks about the two agencies submitting a plan for the transfer.

I'll let you know as soon as I know.
